

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES.

About twelve couples of girls and boys decided to have an "all night party" last evening. The handsome home of Major and Mrs. L. L. McNis was the place selected for such an entertainment. The beautiful green lawn was used altogether in entertaining. Settees were placed about and rugs, chairs and sofa pillows were used on the lawn and galleries thus presenting a lovely appearance. Japanese lanterns were strung about making a pretty light and every thing was done to give comfort and pleasure to the guests. Picnic lunches were daintily prepared by the young ladies and at 2 o'clock cloths were spread and the lunch was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. Music and games were the diversions of the evening. The whole affair was most enjoyable, but could not have been otherwise owing to the tact of the hostess in studying the pleasure of each individual guest.

A gracefully conducted and very enjoyable social affair of the past week was the entertainment given by Mrs. J. O. Chance Wednesday afternoon, when she entertained with Bridge Whist. A lovely home, a gracious and always entertaining hostess, refreshments that satisfied a fastidious palate, ferns, palms, bright women and the card tables made this function a social success. Only three tables were arranged and twelve present, but this small congenial crowd had the merriest of merry times. Mrs. Chance entertained her guests on the cool shady porch, it being screened in by beautiful running roses. This delightful place was made cozy by the use of rugs and comfortable chairs. Each guest on departing assured the hostess of the most pleasant time spent.

One of the prettiest and daintiest of the weeks social events was the domino party given by Miss Hattie Lou Hudson on Wednesday afternoon to the Bachelor Girl's Club. The handsome Hudson home bears an air of gracious hospitality at all times, and especially pretty for this party in decorations of sweetpeas, daisies and beautiful varieties of ferns. The score cards were ornamented with Girl heads done in pen and ink. At the close of the contest, Miss Emily Thomas having won all the games, was given a pretty Dutch collar; she in turn presented it to Miss Weeden, a charming visitor to our little city from Austin. Nothing could have been more delightful than the refreshing ices and angel food cake served after the games, and no invitation is ever received with more delight than one from Miss Hudson.

On Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, the members of the Woman's Club held a very successful, pleasant and largely attended meeting in their club rooms at Carnegie Hall. The president, Mrs. L. L. McNis, called the meeting to order. Three ladies were voted to membership, Mrs. H. A. Burger, Mrs. Ralph Howell and Mrs. Chastaine of College. The treasurer, Mrs. Francis of College resigned her office and Mrs. W. C. Davis was elected in her place. The year book committee of which Mrs. P. M. Raynor is chairman is still at work and is progressing nicely with the program of the coming year's study.

Mrs. P. M. Raynor will entertain the Week End and Entre Nous Clubs on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock with a Garden party.

Mrs. M. W. Sims, Sr., will be hostess to the Entre Nous Club on Thursday morning at 9 o'clock.

Miss Mary Wilson will entertain the Bachelor girls next Wednesday at 4 o'clock.

Mrs. H. O. Boatwright will entertain the Week End Club on next Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock in honor of Mrs. Charles H. Mills of Corsicana, Mrs. J. Fred Smith of Dallas, and Mrs. D. D. Eastham of Italy, Texas.

There is no question but that the election will be ordered.

FINE IRISH POTATOES.

Mr. R. M. Nail has the thanks of the local editor for some of the finest Irish potatoes we have ever seen grown in this county. He only planted a quarter of an acre and has been using potatoes ever since they first came in which was as early as any in the county, and on yesterday he put in 16 bushels in the shipments now being made from this city, and says he has fully that many more on hand, all grown from the small patch of only half an acre. The potatoes are large smooth, and even in size and color, and their excellent flavor is not less than their beauty.

STRAY TOPICS FROM LITTLE OLD NEW YORK.

New York, May 22.—Old Manhattan is, at present, in the unenviable position of a city changing from an old and ugly but historically interesting burg to a modern and architecturally attractive city in which everything bears the prosaic marks of newness. Just at present New York is in the stage of transition from one condition to the other. With feverish haste it is divesting itself of its interesting historical features and landmarks, without, however, having anything of architectural beauty to show in their place as an equivalent.

The Five Points House of Industry, for more than half a century landmark in the notorious Mulberry Bend, was abandoned the other day, to be torn down or remodeled for business purposes. The boys and girls in that institution were removed to the new girls home at Ossining and to the new Brace Farm School for Boys at Valhalla, near White Plains. By the removal of this building Manhattan will lose another of its interesting historical features, while it will, in all probability, gain nothing in architectural beauty.

The new building rules which have been adopted by the city seem to worry the architects no little. The new code strictly prohibits encroachments beyond the building line and it is this feature to which the architects object so strenuously. There has been a law against such encroachments upon the statute book for many years, but it was never enforced. There are thousands of buildings in New York at the present day which encroach upon the sidewalk space for a distance varying from a few inches to eight or ten feet.

It is reported that on the evening of August 2, Hammerstein will present at the Victoria Roof Garden a new vaudeville attraction which promises to create quite a sensation. He has engaged Peter, a monkey, or rather an anthropoid ape, which has been the principal attraction at the Folies Bergeres in Paris for some time and will bring the remarkable animal to this country for an extensive tour.

There is some speculation in theatrical circles as to the attitude of the organization of American vaudeville performers. It would not be surprising if this powerful union should take legal steps to prevent the free-handed performer from entering the United States, upon the ground that his admission would mean a violation of the contract labor law, so jealously guarded by musicians and vaudevillians.

LADIES, WHY NOT PRESERVE YOUR YOUTH AND BEAUTY?

Nothing so detracts from the attractiveness of women as dull, faded, lusterless hair.

There is no excuse for this condition nowadays, because notice is hereby given to the readers of the Eagle that Parisian Sage, the quick acting hair restorer, is now on sale in Bryan at the drug store of E. J. Jenkins and is sold with a rigid guarantee at 50 cents a bottle.

Since its introduction into America, Parisian Sage has had an immense sale, and here are the reasons:

- It is safe and harmless.
- It cures dandruff in two weeks, by killing the dandruff germ.
- It stops falling hair.
- It promptly stops itching of the scalp.
- It makes the hair soft, glossy and luxuriant.
- It gives life and beauty to the hair.
- It is not sticky or greasy.
- It is the daintiest perfumed hair tonic made.
- It is the best, the most pleasant and invigorating hair dressing made.

For sale by leading druggists everywhere. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every package.

Fight shy of the druggist who offers you a substitute, he is unworthy of your confidence.

This is what Mrs. Elizabeth E. Anderson, Mechanicsburg, Pa., writes: "I had given up hope of ever being cured of dandruff, when I purchased a bottle of Parisian Sage. It has entirely removed the dandruff, and has started a growth of new hair, and all this after having been troubled for 35 years. I cheerfully recommend Parisian Sage."

CAPT. THOMAS ROWAN DEAD.

Capt. Thomas Rowan died at his home in this city at 3 p. m. yesterday, brief mention of which appeared in these columns yesterday afternoon. He had not been in robust health for the past year, though most of the time was able to be out and attend to his accustomed duties. He had suffered several attacks of something like heart disease, and the end yesterday came suddenly and is supposed to have been from that cause. He appeared to be in his usual health and sat most of the day on his gallery. About 3 o'clock he staggered into his room and fell on the bed, expiring in a few minutes after the attack came on.

Capt. Thomas Rowan was a native of Louisiana, born in the city of New Orleans, and was about 85 years of age.

He left Louisiana in an early day and came to Texas about 1856, settling first in Harris county and later coming to Brazos county when Bryan was the terminus of the H. and T. C. railroad.

This has been his home constantly since, and he is known and loved by everybody in Bryan and Brazos county. His life among the people here has been one of peace and contentment. Evenly did he pursue the tenor of his way, and so upright was his walk among his fellowmen, so kind his treatment, so just his every act, that he carried with him through life, and to his grave, the love and esteem of all.

He was a member of the Catholic church and lived the life of a Christian, exemplifying in his daily walk and conversation, the teachings of Him in whom he placed his trust.

He was a veteran of two wars, having served with Zachary Taylor and Jefferson Davis in the Mexican war of 1847, and throughout the four years of the Civil war. In the latter struggle he enlisted at New Orleans as Captain of Co. A, De Bray's regiment and participated in many battles in Mississippi and Louisiana, being severely wounded at the battle of Mansfield.

His wife died a number of years ago and he leaves no near relatives except a sister, Mrs. Thomas, who made her home with him.

He was a member of Brazos Union Lodge No. 129 A. F. and A. M. and for many years had been the tiler of the lodge.

He was laid to rest at 5 o'clock this afternoon with Masonic honors, Capt. W. E. Saunders conducting the beautiful ritual.
